Airport Authority Chief now leads law-enforcement organization

DETROIT (Nov. 27, 2012)--Wayne County Airport Authority Police Chief Edward Glomb has been sworn in as President of the Wayne County Association of Chiefs of Police which represents more than 70 police chiefs and executive-level law enforcement professionals across the County.

Since May 2011, Chief Glomb has served on the Executive Board of the organization which seeks a collaborative approach to addressing issues common to law enforcement agencies across the region. Officiating the swearing-in was Honorable Judge David Groner of the 3rd Circuit Court of Wayne County.

“It is an honor to serve in the position,” said Glomb. “I look forward to carrying on the mission and goals of the organization. We will continue to provide our collective advice and take strong stances on any issue affecting law enforcement in Wayne County.”

Chief Glomb also serves on the Board of Directors of the Airport Law Enforcement Agencies Network (ALEAN) which promotes world wide information and intelligence sharing for the benefit of airport law enforcement officers and agencies, as well as the Board of Directors for the Southeastern Michigan Chiefs of Police.

“Leaders on our team are also leaders in the broader aviation and law-enforcement community,” said Airport Authority CEO Tom Naughton. “Congratulations to Chief Glomb for working every day to keep us safe and for sharing his expertise and experience.”

Glomb has been Police Chief for Detroit Metropolitan and Willow Run Airports since August 2005. He previously served as Police Chief of Franklin, MI after 11 years in the Wayne County Sheriff’s Department. A Vietnam veteran, Glomb served with the 5th Special Forces Group (Green Berets) and was honorably discharged in 1970 with the rank of Captain.

Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport (DTW) welcomed more than 32 million passengers in 2011 and is one of the world’s leading air transportation hubs. With service from 13 scheduled passenger airlines, Michigan’s largest airport offers more than 1,200 flights per day to and from nearly 150 non-stop destinations on four continents. In 2010, DTW ranked highest in overall customer satisfaction among large airports in the J.D. Power and Associates North America Airport Satisfaction Study. With two new state-of-the-art passenger terminals, six jet runways, and an onsite AAA Four-Diamond Westin Hotel, DTW is among the world’s most efficient, customer friendly and operationally capable airports in North America. DTW is operated by Wayne County Airport Authority, which also operates nearby Willow Run Airport—an important corporate, cargo and general aviation facility. The Airport Authority is entirely self-sustaining and does not receive local tax dollars to support airport operations. Visit www.metroairport.com for more information.
